Introduction

This booklet provides basic information about the choices young people will have when they leave school. Educational options are broken down and listed by level. Your son or daughter's school and their Additional Needs Pathway Adviser will be able to advise you which levels to look at. However, please be aware that the colleges will also need to complete their own assessments before confirming which course would be the most appropriate for your young person.

Information on some of the other key issues that will change for young people over the next few years is also addressed. This includes education transport, care needs, money and benefits. There is also information about what your son or daughter may be able to do when they have completed their education and are ready to move out into the world as adults; whatever level of support they may need to do so.

This document does not currently include:

- Options above Level 1 (GCSE at D-G grades)
- Higher Education and related benefits

There is a great deal of information about general options and courses as well as other information on www.youthoria.org

Please speak to your Additional Needs Pathway Adviser for further information (contact details on p2).

Please note that this booklet gives basic information correct at the time of printing. You are advised to check for details, amendments and updates before making any final decisions. If you would like us to add anything or find something that is inaccurate please contact a member of the 14-25 Adulthood Additional Needs Team.

Moving On – Choices and Options

A young person can leave school on the last Friday in June if they will be 16 by the end of August. However there is a requirement for all young people to stay in education or training until they are 18. This can include local schools, colleges, training, apprenticeships, and even includes part-time learning where a young person also has a job.

When your son / daughter leaves school they are likely to have some or all of the following options available to them, depending on their level of ability, independence and support needs:

- Full-time education at college
- Training – either 'work-based' or 'foundation learning'
- Employment – open, supported or voluntary
- Social Care Options: supported living, residential care, and community based day activities - could include day centres, part-time college, social firms, community leisure or sport/fitness activities

Many young people leaving school move onto full-time college programmes, a stepping stone to future options. This gives further time in education to build skills and qualifications and help prepare for work or independent living. It is less common for special school leavers to move straight from school into training or employment.

Most special school leavers will be able to go to college to continue to build on their skills and abilities. Some will do courses aimed at particular areas of work; some will do general employability courses, while others will focus on life and independence skills.

College courses tend to last one or two years, but it is common for young people to do one course and then progress onto another. Young people can stay in education as long as they are making progress and there are courses for them to progress onto. Once a course has been completed, it cannot usually be repeated. Special school leavers tend to be able to stay at college for between 2 and 4 years.

Young people may continue to get the support they need funded through the High Needs Funding Block in colleges.

Young people pay no course fees between 16 -18 years. However, fees may apply from 19 years. Advice should be sought from individual colleges.

If, and only if, a young person's needs cannot be met by any of the existing college courses (within or outside the college) then it may be possible to apply for specialist funding so that an individual package can be built around a young person's needs and aspirations. This is often referred to as 'Individual Curriculum Solutions' and is offered through the local regional colleges.

If, and only if, a young person's needs cannot be met by either of these options, they may be able to go to an out of county specialist residential college.

The Local Offer

All Local Authorities, Schools and Further Education Colleges must publish their local offer. The local offer sets out the provision across education, health and social care for children and young people aged 0-25 with special educational needs and/or disabilities. The local offer will develop overtime and in consultation with parents, carers and young people.

Please visit www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/localoffer

Qualifications and Levels explained

Schools, colleges and training providers use slightly different terminology when describing levels of achievement and qualifications. A young person usually needs to complete a full level before moving to the next level.

The new GCSE grading structure came in to effect in 2017; English Language/Literature and Maths will be the first to be graded from 9-1. Please look at the following link to explain this: https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/596393/Grading_new_GCSEs_from_2017_v4.pdf

School Levels	Qualification Levels
A Levels	A levels Level 3 Qualifications
4 / 5 GCSEs at grade 4-9 (old grade A*-C) Schools tend to stop using National Curriculum levels to measure progress at this point.	4 / 5 GCSEs at grade 4-9 (old GCSE grade A* - C) Level 2 Qualifications
4 / 5 GCSEs at 1-3 (old GCSE grade D-G) National Curriculum Level 4 to 7.	4 / 5 GCSEs at 1-3 (old GCSE grade D-G) Level 1 Qualifications Foundation Learning

National Curriculum Level 3	Entry Level 3
National Curriculum Level 2	Entry Level 2
National Curriculum Level 1	Entry Level 1/ * E1 achievement continuum

The new T level qualifications are due to be introduced from September 2020. For more information please go to:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/introduction-of-t-levels/introduction-of-t-levels>

How do I know the level my son/daughter is working at?

In Annual Reviews of your son or daughter's Education, Health and Care (EHC) Plan and/or at the end of each year in their school report, you will be provided with information about the level your child has achieved in each of the curriculum subjects.

The majority of students from special schools will be working between the P Scales /Milestones and National Curriculum Level 3 or Entry Level 3. The majority of courses offered by our Area Special Schools are within these levels.

Foundation Learning

Foundation learning includes all qualifications and courses between Level 1 and Entry Level 1. Within foundation learning courses colleges are more likely to be able to support young people to learn different things at different levels. This means young people get a longer time to work on areas of weakness without it preventing them making progress in the areas they are interested in.

Level 1

These are for young people who have secure maths and English skills and are likely to be able to achieve a full Level 1 qualification, usually within one year, including Maths and English. Most special school leavers would benefit from starting a course within a college's Foundation Learning Provision.

Pre-Entry and Entry Level Courses

These courses are often suitable for young people with learning difficulties and disabilities, especially if they have achieved at Entry Level, but not at GCSE level. Entry Level 3 courses are also offered as an introduction to some vocational areas and are a good starting point. They are often completed by young people who have achieved some GCSEs at lower grades.

*E1 Achievement Continuum

The qualifications have been developed for learners working between P Levels 1-8 and Entry 1 to have their achievements recognised within a qualification framework. Schools should continue to assess pupils using P scales 1-4 in 2018/19 and 2019/20. P scales 5-8 have been replaced by the pre-key stage standards for KS1 and KS2.

They can be undertaken in schools, colleges, residential centres, training providers and independent provision.

This tool allows providers to report achievement against the 10 stage Entry 1 achievement continuum. This continuum allows learners to demonstrate very small steps of progress and enables providers to differentiate between the levels of achievement of learners working within and below Entry 1.

Important

Full-time college is typically 16 hours a week, which is roughly three days a week. Please talk to your Additional Needs Pathway Adviser and/or your Social Worker on how a young person's week might look once they move on to further education from school.

Individual Curriculum Solutions

Within Cambridgeshire, Individual Curriculum Solutions (ICS) may be offered to young people aged 16-25 with complex or multiple learning difficulties and/or disabilities if, and only if, other options have been explored and found to be not appropriate and subject to submission to and approval by Local Authority funding panel

The (ICS) funding enables the young person to study at a Further Education College/or at an alternative setting under the oversight of a FE. College, with a bespoke programme that meets individual needs built around them. Their levels of study, interests and skills will all be taken into consideration.

The local colleges that offer access to Individual Curriculum Solutions are:

Cambridge Regional College and Huntingdon site (formerly Huntingdon Regional College)

– bespoke programmes both on and off site with outside providers, social enterprise firms and approved tutors.

Peterborough Regional College – bespoke programmes considered for young people with a range of Learning Disabilities and Difficulties.

College of West Anglia – Individualised programmes considered for young people with a range of Learning Disabilities and Difficulties.

Bedford College- Individualised programmes considered for young people with a range of Learning Disabilities and Difficulties.

Specialist Independent College Provision

If, and only if, a young person's educational needs are so complex that they cannot be met locally on existing courses or through Individual Curriculum Solutions (and we have enough evidence to prove this), an application can be made for funding for a specialist residential college out of county. Funding for out of county provision has to be agreed by the Local Authority through a formal panel submission process.

It is expected that the needs of the majority of young people will be met through local Further Education provision. However, if this is not possible, consideration for placement at an independent specialist provision may be explored by the Local Authority. For further information regarding this process please contact your Special Educational Needs Casework Officer.

Other Learning, Training and Volunteering Opportunities

Friendship and activities for young people with ASCs

The Aspire Programme supports young people (9 - 18 year olds) in Cambridge City, South or Bottisham VC catchment area who have been diagnosed with high-functioning autistic spectrum conditions and who are in mainstream education.

Our weekly youth clubs create a social space for members to interact at a level with which they are comfortable. We offer a high ratio of support from committed volunteers. Young people come to relax and be themselves, and to do things that they enjoy. There is no pressure to socialise, but members often find they enjoy sharing activities such as board games, pool, table tennis, lego, crafts or cooking, with others who have similar interests and difficulties. One member said "Autistic people just understand each other."

Apprenticeships

An apprenticeship is a real job with training which would allow your daughter or son to earn while they learn, whilst gaining a nationally recognised qualification. Apprenticeships take between one and five years to complete and cover 1,500 job roles in a wide range of industries, from engineering to accountancy, public relations to veterinary nursing. Apprenticeships are now available up to degree level and beyond.

Benefits of doing an Apprenticeship:

- Earning a salary;
- Training in the skills employers want;
- Excellent progression opportunities, whether looking to study further or climb the ranks within the workplace;
- Increased future earning potential apprentices enjoy marked salary increases when they complete their training, and those completing a higher apprenticeship could see increased earnings of an estimated £150,000 over their lifetime
- Learning at a pace suited to the individual with the support of a mentor;
- Paid holiday.

Apprenticeship levels

There are various levels of apprenticeship your son or daughter could apply for depending on their current skills and qualifications. Apprenticeships have equivalent educational levels:

- Intermediate 2 - requires 5 GCSE passes at grades 4-9
- Advanced 3 – requires 2 A level passes
- Higher 4,5,6 and 7 requires Foundation degree and above
- Degree 6 and 7 requires Bachelor's or master's degree

All apprenticeships will include elements of on the job and off the job training leading to industry recognised standards or qualifications. Some apprenticeships will require an assessment at the end of the programme to assess the apprentice's ability and competence in their job role.

Salaries

The minimum wage for apprentices is £3.70 per hour, but many employers pay more than this. This is dependent on the sector, region and apprenticeship level e.g. some higher apprenticeships can pay as much as £300 – £500 per week. More details on salaries and entry criteria in specific apprenticeship occupations can be accessed by looking at the vacancies on 'Find an apprenticeship'.

N.B From September 2017

Adjustments will take place in order for people with learning difficulties/disabilities to have an equal opportunity to gain the skills offered through an apprenticeship; English and Maths requirements will now be adjusted to Entry Level 3 Functional Skills. For more information on Apprenticeship specification please look at: https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/630068/Specification_of_Apprenticeship_Standards_for_England_.pdf

Traineeships

You can expect three things from a traineeship:

- high quality work placements – where you can learn what's expected of you in the workplace, and develop links with local employers
- flexible training - in other relevant areas to help you get ready for work, such as job search and interview skills, time-keeping and team working
- study in English and maths (if appropriate) – employers value these essential skills very highly.

At the end of your traineeship, if there is a job or apprenticeship vacancy with the work placement host, you should receive an interview. If there isn't a job or apprenticeship opportunity at that time, you will receive an exit interview with the employer who provided the work placement. In this interview you can discuss what you've learned, and how it might help you with things like updating your CV and getting into a job or an apprenticeship.

Whether you go for a traineeship or apprenticeship will depend on your age and qualifications.

Other Learning, Training and Volunteering Opportunities

Which qualifications will you get?

All traineeships are the same level.

Who can take a traineeship?

You must be:

- 16-24yrs and qualified below level 3
- 16-25yrs with learning difficulties.

What sort of experience will you need

You must be:

- out of work with little work experience
- working for less than 16 hours a week
- leaving school/college
- finding it hard to get an apprenticeship
- not sure you have the skills for an apprenticeship.

How long does it last?

Six weeks to six months.

How much will you earn?

Traineeships are unpaid but most pay travel and meal costs.

Supported Internships

Supported internships are a structured study programme based primarily at an employer. They enable young people aged 16-24 with an Statement of SEN, a Learning Difficulty Assessment or an Education, Health and Care plan to achieve sustainable paid employment by equipping them with the skills they need for work, through learning in the workplace. Supported internships are unpaid, and last for a minimum of six months. Wherever possible, they support the young person to move into paid employment at the end of the programme. Alongside their time at the employer, young people complete a personalised study programme which includes the chance to study for relevant substantial qualifications, if appropriate, and English and maths.

Access to Work Fund

The application process for those on supported internships and traineeships wishing to apply to Access to Work has been revised. Changes include:

- the provision for a supported employment provider to make an application on behalf of an education provider (education providers can still make the claim if they would like to do so);
- a move from one form per month, to one per placement for each student; and
- the ability to make applications up to three months in advance.

Young people on or about to start the work experience placement of a supported internship, or traineeship with a disability or health condition, can apply to the Department for Work and Pensions' Access to Work fund. An Access to Work grant can cover the additional support a young person may need for the in-work element of supported internships or traineeships and can fund:

- Job coaches (where they support interns directly in their work placements, other support provided by a job coach, e.g. life skills activity and any educational activities will need to be funded separately);
- Specialist equipment for days that a young person is at the employer's premises; and
- The extra fares to work if the person is unable to use public transport.

There is no set amount for an Access to Work grant, and how much an individual receives depends upon their circumstances. Completed applications should be sent to the dedicated Access to Work team at:

Atwosu.london@dwp.gsi.gov.uk

Paid Employment

Like anyone else, young people with additional needs, who have reached school leaving age, are entitled to apply for work, whether full-time or part-time.

The Equality Act 2010, which replaced the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, requires employers not to discriminate against people because of their disability, and to make reasonable adjustments so that they could do the job. This applies both when they are employed and when they are applying for a job. If an employer discriminates against them, they (and their parents) can put a case to an Employment Tribunal. If they win the case, they may be able to claim for financial loss and damages for injuries to feelings.

A complaint form can be obtained from a Jobcentre or a Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB). CABs can also give advice about the complaints process.

As we all know, the employment situation is not easy, but it is also not impossible. Young people with additional needs regularly get both full and part time work. It does however often take a great number of applications and effort on behalf of the young person and their parents. If you contact your Additional Needs Pathway Coordinator (See Contact Details p37) they will be able to advise you how to mount a campaign to look for work. Additional Needs Pathway Coordinators will keep in contact and continue to guide young people through their job search.

Young people claiming Employment Support Allowance (ESA) and Jobseeker's Allowance (JSA) who are actively seeing work can ask the Job Centre for support. Job Centres have specialists called Disability Employment Advisers (DEA) and Work Coaches who may be able to help. Contact details can be found at: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-jobcentre-plus>

You can also be asked to attend the Work Programme which can help you prepare for work if you are claiming either JSA or ESA.

The Disability Employment Adviser/Work Coach can refer you to Papworth Trust or Seetec. (Seetec is a national organisation and is based at Henry Giles House). They see customers with all health conditions and should offer appropriate support.)

Papworth and Seetec can provide support in job seeking activities and the Work Programme. There are some mandatory referrals but anyone on ESA can volunteer to attend the programme if they wish. The referrals are made to each organisation on a random basis so customers cannot usually specify which provider they wish to attend.

Jobcentre Plus

Offers support to customers who are in receipt of benefits (e.g. Universal Credit and Employment Support Allowance) to move into, or closer to, paid or voluntary work. In addition, they provide additional, targeted support for those who have physical or mental health problems or disabilities.

Core services offered by Jobcentre Plus for those with mental health problems or disabilities:

Work Coaches

A work Coach is a named, regular point of contact for anyone in contact with JCP and their role is to support customers to move closer to/into work. Work Coaches can signpost customers to other services and support (e.g. Work and Health Programme, below), and can draw on specialists within JCP to support them (e.g. Disability Employment Advisers and work psychologists) so the Work Coach is most able to support the customer. Additionally, there are external organisations who provide services, training and employment opportunities such as CV writing, support and careers advice that can be accessed via the Work Coach.

Work and Health Programme

The Work and Health Programme gives customers with a health condition or disability additional support to help them move towards, or into work. Customers receive tailored 1:1 support with a case worker, who provides a similar role to a Work Coach, but with more time, flexibility and knowledge of the additional challenges faced by people with health needs. They can advocate for the customer with potential employers and provide practical advice and support. The case worker has access to a range of additional resources (e.g. musculoskeletal experts) to help enable those with health conditions to access the same employment opportunities as those without health issues, and to achieve their full potential.

Employment, Finance and Transport

Finance

16 – 19 Bursary

The 16-19 Bursary Fund helps 16- to 19-year-olds continue in education, where they might otherwise struggle for financial reasons. It is made up of two parts – bursaries of up to £1200 a year to the most vulnerable young people and a discretionary fund for schools, colleges, academies and training providers to distribute.

Young people in the defined vulnerable groups will receive bursaries of £1200 a year. This group is made up of children in care, care leavers, those on income support and those in receipt of both Employment Support Allowance (ESA) and Disability Living Allowance (DLA) / Personal Independence Payment (PIP).

Providers can distribute the rest of the money to support any student who faces genuine financial barriers to participation such as costs of transport, food or equipment. Providers will have the freedom to decide the scale and frequency of bursary payments. A bursary may be conditional on students meeting agreed standards, for example, behaviour and attendance.

The 16-19 Bursary Fund is administered by providers. Young people need to apply directly to their academy, school, college or training provider for support from the scheme.

Child Benefit / Tax credits

If you are already receiving Child Benefit or any other related benefits such as tax credits, you may continue to receive them until your son/ daughter turns 20 or until they leave full-time education if this is sooner. You will need to tell the Child Benefit Office if your child is continuing in full-time further education. For further information

Employment and Support Allowance (ESA)

Following their 16th birthday your young person may be eligible to claim an incapacity related and/or income related benefit in their own right.

ESA can be paid from a young person's 16th birthday. Entitlement to this benefit will depend on passing an assessment for capability for work, and may involve a medical assessment. There are two separate elements to ESA: contributory ESA (CESA) is dependent on having paid enough National Insurance contributions and income-based ESA which has separate rules about savings and income.

To qualify for income-based ESA while in full-time education, young people must also be entitled to DLA / PIP.

It is worth seeking expert advice for a detailed calculation before applying, due to the impact on other benefits, such as Child Benefit and Child Tax Credit.

To apply for Employment and Support Allowance if your son or daughter is 18 - 25 phone the Job Centre Plus Contact Centre on 0800 055 6688.

<http://www.gov.uk/government/publications/employment-and-support-allowance-claim-form>

Jobseekers Allowance (JSA)

Once your son / daughter is 18 and leaves school, if they are ready to enter work and are looking for a job they will be able to apply for JSA. Help may be available at their job centre through a Disability Employment Adviser or Work Coach. To apply phone 0800 055 6688.

Universal Credits

Are replacing:

- Child tax credits
- Housing benefit
- Income support
- Income based job-seekers allowance
- Income related Employment Support Allowance
- Working tax credits
- Legacy benefits

New claimants will need to apply for universal credits.

Existing claimants – do not need to claim universal credits until the DWP gets in touch or if there is a change in their circumstances.

Employment, Finance and Transport Disability Living Allowance (DLA) / Personal Independence Payment

Many young people at special schools receive Disability Living Allowance. This is paid if a young person needs significant amounts of help to care for themselves or to move about. It is made up of a care component and a mobility component.

www.gov.uk/dla-disability-living-allowance-benefit
DLA for people aged 16 and above is being replaced by a new benefit called Personal Independence Payment (PIP). When a young person reaches 16 their DLA is likely to end and they will be invited to claim the new Personal Independence Payment. It also has two parts - a daily living component and a mobility component.

Employment, Finance and Transport

Transport post 16

Post 16 students will be expected to walk or use public transport to their educational provision unless they have a special educational need or disability which prevents them walking or accessing public transport (bus or train) or a bus service contracted by the council. Post 16 students who are unable to access public service transport or walk to school/college are able to apply for post 16 SEN transport. The student must be enrolled on a full time course either in school (mainstream or special) or College of Further Education. This must be the nearest appropriate centre to their home address offering an appropriate course for that student.

If these criteria have been met they may be eligible for subsidised transport up to the age of 25. This decision will be made by the Statutory Assessment Team.

Cost per term for transport is £180 (subject to yearly review) or free if in receipt of qualifying benefits. This payment must be paid termly but can opt to pay half-termly. If you choose to pay half-termly the payment can only be made by cheque.

Applications for SEN transport can be made online or a paper copy can be requested. Applications cannot be made until the new form is released for the next academic year. This is normally in May/June.

Further information regarding post 16 transport can be found at:

<https://www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/residents/children-and-families/schools-learning/school-transport/transport-for-post-16-pupils-with-special-educational-needs>

Personal Transport Budget

If a child is eligible for transport parents/carers can opt to drive them. The parent/carer receives 40p per mile for the journey to and from school/college.

Social Care Options for young People – Preparing for Adulthood:

Support to help young people to prepare for adulthood should start as early as possible and at least by the age of 14. It should be focussed on outcomes that are important to the young person.

Children's Disability Services will work with children with a learning disability up to 18 years of age. The Young Adult Team will then take over and continue to support the young person up to 25 or as needed.

For other young people the Adult Social Care Teams (Physical Disability, Mental Health, Sensory, Autism and Adults Support Team (formally Vulnerable Adults) will often start to work with young people at age 16 to assess and develop adult support plans in readiness for the move to adult support.

For adults (over 19 years) with additional needs there are day opportunities that offer a range of activities which is normally funded through social care (depending on social care threshold).

N.B Come April 2018 all young people who are 18 after this date (apart from Mental Health and Physical Disability Teams) will go through the Young Adult Team if they have an EHC Plan.

A list of day centres are:

For those who are likely to require support in adult life, they will need to be identified and placed on the Preparing for Adulthood Tracker via the Statutory Assessment Resources Team (START).

Housing / Accommodation Options

How do I find out what is right for me?

It is important that you think about what sort of housing you will need now or in the future. For example, do you want to live on your own or share with other people and will you need support?

Housing and support can be provided as a “package” but “pick and mix” arrangements which match individual requirements are increasingly common, particularly if someone lives on their own. If a young adult feels that they will be able to live independently, with the support of your family and friends, then you should get a housing application form from your local council’s Housing Department so that you register the fact that you need accommodation.

You should include any information about having a learning disability on this form as this may mean you are given some priority as being vulnerable under the Housing Act.

There are quite long waiting lists for housing but registering as early as possible will help. To get a form and find out more about your options you can contact your local housing team.

If you feel you will need support then it is important that you have your needs assessed by your Adult social care team.

The care manager will work out with you what level of support you will require and what type of housing and support package will best suit your needs, and will also help you to fill in housing application forms.

Some housing and support options to choose from:

- Registered Care (regulated by the Commission for Social Care Inspection)
- Registered care homes
- Registered care homes are generally larger than group homes (see below) and can have twenty or more residents, although many are much smaller with typically three to nine residents.

- Personal care and full board are provided, and there's usually 24-hour staff cover.

Shared Lives scheme

In an adult placement (sometimes called 'adult fostering'), the local authority supports and supervises families who provide a place in their own home.

Some of these are registered while someone less disabled may be in supported lodging in an adult placement scheme, where they rent a room or bed-sit in a family home and receive minimal support.

Supported housing

Supported housing takes many forms - it means any type of housing and support which is not a registered care home. Although not inspected and regulated in the same way as registered homes there are systems for checking that these services are safe and of good quality.

- Support agencies which provide personal care are registered with and inspected by the Commission for Social Care Inspection.
- The social and health care staff from the learning disability team continues to support and review people who take up places in supported housing schemes. Group homes (or shared housing)

Group homes are usually smaller than registered care homes, with three or four people sharing. Support staff either visit regularly, or are there during the day and sometimes also overnight as well.

People who live there have tenancies and may do their own shopping, cooking and housework, with help from staff.

Cluster housing

Cluster units, either on one site (like sheltered housing for older people) or occasionally spread across a neighbourhood. Support staffs are usually on hand and there may be shared facilities such as a laundry and communal lounge. Flats or bed-sits are self-contained.

Useful Information and Contacts

This type of housing is often suitable for people who want to live more independently than in a home but still have some support.

Individual placements/renting

More people with learning disabilities are now renting properties from local authorities, housing associations, or private landlords and receiving "outreach" support - this means that someone will visit regularly and help with various aspects of daily living. There are also a few companies who specialise in renting to people with learning disabilities.
