GCSE's in summer 2021

(For students & their parents/carers)

Happy
to help

Check the school website 'Examinations' section for information about your exams, results and certificates.

If you have received a copy of this booklet, then you have been entered for a GCSE examination this summer. This booklet is for both students and their parents/carers to enable you to understand the forthcoming GCSE examinations. It answers all the most frequently asked questions.

As Examinations Officer, I am responsible for administering all public examination arrangements and for oversight of students during exams.

I have an experienced team of invigilators who are present during all examinations under my supervision. Not only are they there to ensure that examinations are run correctly, but also to help you should you have a problem.

Please take a few minutes to read through this booklet. If there is anything that you are unsure about, then please ask me. My office is upstairs in Beechurst along from room B4, near the stairwell.

This booklet contains information about collecting results and certificates, please keep for your reference until certificates have been collected.

Thank you.

E Everitt

Mrs Liz Everitt
Examinations Officer

Standards of Behaviour

Soham Village College expects the highest standards of behaviour during all examinations from every student.

Strict guidelines are set by the Examination Boards, which the College have to implement. Any misconduct will be reported to the Exam Boards and will be dealt with severely. You may lose marks or even be disqualified from all further GCSE examinations.

Uniform

All students must wear correct school uniform for exams, those who are not dressed properly may not be admitted to the examination. In hot weather blazers may be removed.

Legal Surnames/Forenames

All students will be entered for exams using their legal names. It is possible to use a 'preferred' name, but this must be clearly indicated on the exam statement of entry, issued in January, and returned by the stated deadline otherwise penalty fees may apply.

Exam Timetables – Summer Series

You will be given a provisional timetable, printed on WHITE paper, before the Easter holidays. This will give you the dates of your exams and allow you to plan your revision.

A full final timetable, printed on GREEN paper, will be issued as soon as possible after Easter. I will speak to you personally should anything change on your final timetable.

Your timetable is important! Look after it! On the day before each exam, make sure you double-check that you have read the information correctly, and ensure that you turn up at the correct time. Don't miss an exam just because you made a mistake – it's YOUR future that it could affect.

If you do lose your timetable then you need to ask me for a re-print. Don't try and guess or ask a friend as timetables are individual to you. A clipboard will be placed on my desk to which you should add your name. I will re-print as soon as I can and will leave your timetable in a named envelope for you to collect later. It is your responsibility to return to collect.

'START' time is NOT 'arrival' time

Please note that the 'start' time as stated on your timetable is when you should be putting pen to paper – it is not the time to arrive. You must arrive 10/15 minutes beforehand and line up in your subject sets as you normally do.

Equipment

Remember it is YOUR responsibility to bring the correct equipment to your exams. Think carefully about what you need.

What should I bring into the exam room?

- ✓ Writing materials and spares in a clear plastic pencil case or bag
- ✓ Black biro/pen (you must write in BLACK as papers are scanned)
- ✓ Ruler
- ✓ Eraser
- ✓ Calculator – (refer to JCQ Information for Candidates on Page 9)
- ✓ Any specific equipment for the exam you are sitting
- ✓ Bottle of water (if required) - labels and writing not allowed
- ✓ Tissues (sniffing can disturb other candidate's concentration)

What shouldn't I bring into the exam room? ...

- × Coats & Bags
- × Unauthorised books or rough paper
- × Calculator lid or calculator instructions/formulas (JCQ Info Page 9)
- × Correcting fluid – you mustn't use it
- × iPods, Mobile phones, MP3/4 players, Smartwatches or any other technological/web enabled sources of information.

Start of Exam

You must enter the exam venue quietly and sit at the desk which has your named exam slip on it.

YOU MUST NOT START WRITING UNTIL TOLD TO DO SO.

The Chief Invigilator will formally start the exam by announcing that you are subject to exam regulations. Unauthorised items will be collected in and students asked to remove wrist watches. Candidates will be asked to complete their details on the answer paper/booklet. Legal surnames/forenames must be used, unless previously agreed with me. Exam board erratum notices will be read out if applicable. Your answers must be written clearly and in black ink.

LISTEN CAREFULLY TO THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN TO YOU

What if I have a problem before the exam? ...

Headache, unwell, upset at home, wrong paper? You MUST speak to me or an invigilator BEFORE the exam starts. I will do all I can to help, but I cannot help after the exam has finished and you have gone home.

What if I feel ill during the exam? ...

If you feel unwell, raise your hand and wait for an invigilator to come to you. You can leave the room under supervision and return when you feel able to do so. You will be allowed to make up the time lost.

What if the fire or lockdown alarm sounds? ...

The Chief Invigilator will stop the exam and tell you to close your papers. You will be led out of the exam room, in silence and in an orderly manner. If anyone is suspected of talking about the contents of the exam, this will have to be reported to the relevant Exam Board as it would be considered malpractice. After returning to the room you will re-start your exam and will be allowed the time missed.

What happens when the exam finishes?

Use all the available time in your exam. Check your answers and instructions carefully. Don't forget that questions appear on the back page too sometimes! You cannot leave the exam early. No-one may leave the exam room until all papers have been collected.

You will be dismissed a row at a time. You are still under exam conditions until you are completely out of the exam room. Remember some students may still be working. Do not disturb the rest of the school. You must return to your scheduled lesson.

What happens if my exam goes over break or lunchtime?

Exam start times are scheduled by the exam boards and therefore you may miss your normal break or lunchtimes. YOU must be aware of when your exams are and make sure your teacher knows that you may have to leave lessons early. Messages will be sent out to teaching staff. You will always be allowed a short break before and after an exam, if applicable, to eat and drink, etc. You may need to plan your meals slightly differently if you have an exam. The canteen may be available, but there won't necessarily be a full selection of food to choose from, you may prefer to bring a packed lunch. Make sure you eat and drink.

Mobile Phones / iPods / Smartwatches / MP3/4 Players

Technological / Web enabled sources of information

Calculator lids containing formulas / Non see-through pencil cases

The Examination Boards wish to make it clear to all students that the taking of the above mentioned items into an examination room is STRICTLY FORBIDDEN and these items are considered 'unauthorised'.

MALPRACTICE

The consequences for ignoring any of the exam regulations can be severe, this may be bringing in unauthorised equipment as mentioned above, ignoring instructions from an invigilator, communicating with other students or causing a disruption in the exam room.

Students have lost marks in the past, do not risk this happening to you.

LEAVE YOUR ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT AT HOME!

If you do bring them to an exam, then please be aware that the school cannot be held responsible for the safe keeping of these items during exams.

You will be asked to hand in any unauthorised items at the beginning of the exam. These items will be placed in plastic boxes and kept at the front of the exam room. It is strongly advised that you put your items into a named envelope/plastic bag to enable quick identification upon retrieval and to avoid the possibility of someone taking the wrong items.

Items which are left behind at the end of the exam will be placed in a large secure zipped wallet and taken to the Finance Office for safe-keeping. Students may retrieve items from there.

MOBILE PHONES MUST BE SWITCHED OFF!

What if I forget to come for a GCSE exam?

Exam dates and times are set by Exam Boards and cannot be re-arranged; therefore you will have missed the exam and will receive 'zero' marks for that particular paper.

- You may be charged for any exam you miss unless there is a good reason why you missed it.

What if I arrive late for my GCSE exam?

- DON'T PANIC!
- Report immediately to Student Services, The Finance Office or the Admin Office in Beechurst – near B8. DO NOT ENTER THE EXAM ROOM! I will be asked to attend.
- I will always do my best to accommodate you and let you have the full time, although we cannot guarantee this.
- IMPORTANT - If you are very late, you must be accompanied to school by a parent/carer. Report to reception with your parent/carer and say you have a GCSE exam. Wait until I arrive to collect you. A report may have to be completed, which you and your parent/carer will need to sign, this will be sent to the Exam Board and it is at their discretion as to whether or not they accept your work.
- If you arrive when the exam has finished, you will not be admitted.

What if I'm ill or have injured myself and cannot write?

- I need to know as soon as possible in order to make suitable arrangements. If you cannot write, then you may be allocated a scribe. Make sure that I know well before you enter the exam room. If you cannot find me, ask Student Services or the Finance Department to contact me on the radio.
- If you really are so unwell that you cannot attend, then your parents/carers MUST phone the Principal's PA on 01353 724102 by 8.30am on the morning of the exam you're unable to attend. You must speak to someone in person, do not leave a message.

Your Parents/Carers must contact your GP's surgery on the day of the missed exam. You do not necessarily need to visit the doctors, but a phone call must be made to state the symptoms and receive advice.

A self certification form will be sent to you, this has to be signed by the doctor's surgery, your parent/carer and yourself as the student. This will then be sent to the Exam Board for their consideration.

Retrospective information is not accepted by the Examination Boards, therefore it is important that advice or a visit to the doctors is made on the day of the missed exam.

The Exam Board may award a grade to students who are absent for an acceptable reason as long as 25% of the total assessment has been completed.

What if I have problems that may affect my examination performance?

- Headaches, stomach aches, general upset, etc, speak to me before the exam so that I am aware. A phone call after the exam from your parents/carers cannot be acted upon.
- More serious illness, or family circumstances which may affect examination performance, arising shortly before or during the exams, should be reported as soon as possible to me so that an application for special consideration can be made to the Examination Boards. A letter from the Doctor may be required. It should be understood, however, that the maximum amount of consideration given is only 5% and this is entirely at the discretion of the Exam Boards.

Personal Data and Freedom of Information

Relevant personal data (name, date of birth, gender) will be transferred to the awarding bodies for the purpose of examining and awarding qualifications. This personal data, together with the examination results and outcomes of any reviews of marking, reviews of moderation and appeals may be shared within the Academy Trust

Awarding bodies may be required to provide a candidate's personal data to educational agencies such as the DfE, The Skills Funding Agency, UCAS, Local Authorities, EFA and Learning Records Service (LRS). Additionally, candidates' personal data may be provided to a central record of qualifications approved by the awarding bodies for statistical and policy development purposes. Awarding bodies maintain a comprehensive archive record of candidates' examination results. The purpose is to provide an audit trail of the results certificated and to maintain an accurate record of an individual's achievements.

CERTIFICATES & COURSEWORK

Certificates are issued for all GCSE awards.

They do not arrive in schools until the first week in November. You will be notified by your form tutor when these are available for collection. You will need to collect them from me in person as I will require you to sign for them.

Your certificates are valuable documents and you WILL most likely need them in the future when applying for University or jobs. Please make every effort to collect your certificates when requested to do so. Certificates which have not been collected after one year may be destroyed. To obtain replacements you would need to contact the relevant exam board and will be charged approximately £45.00 for each certificate required.

Coursework is not routinely returned to students, but if you do require it, please speak to your subject teacher any time from the beginning of October. Coursework not collected by the end of the autumn term will be destroyed.

AND FINALLY ...

Examination Board rules are strict and must be followed to the letter. Do not jeopardise your chances or those of other students in the exam room by behaving badly. Even eye contact can be taken as communication.

Any misbehaviour MUST be reported to the Board and will ALWAYS be dealt with very severely.

REMEMBER, if you feel unwell or think something is wrong, you need to speak to me or an invigilator as soon as possible.

EXAM QUESTIONS

Read them carefully – check the back page.

Revise and behave sensibly and you won't have any problems.

Remember it's YOUR future.

GOOD LUCK!
