

WJEC Eduqas GCSE English Language and WJEC Eduqas GCSE English Literature
 (these two separate qualifications are both 100% final examination at the end of Y11)

	Year 10		Year 11
Term	Units	Assessments Students will be informed about the dates of these assessments. Mock arks and national grades are recorded on G4S	Units	Assessments Students will be informed about the dates of these assessments. Mock arks and national grades are recorded on G4S
Autumn	Language – Component 1 Section A Read and analyse 20th Century prose fiction. Learn how to approach the five questions on this paper	1 hour – hall exam	Literature – Component 2 Section B Study one set 19th century prose novel from the prescribed list.	See next half term
	Literature – Component 1 Section B Learn about the Romantic era and other contexts. Study the first eight of the set poems from the Anthology (1789 to the present day).	1 hour – hall exam	Revision of C1 Language
	Literature – Component 2 Section A Study one set Post 1914 Prose/ Drama text from the prescribed list.	45 minutes – hall exam (after Christmas)	Literature - Component 2 Section C Learn how to analyse and compare previously unseen poems from the 20th and 21st centuries. Literature – Component 1 Section B Study the remaining set poems from the Anthology (1789 to the present day). Language—Component 2 Section A Read, analyse and compare two high-quality unseen non-fiction texts, one from the 19th century the other from the 21st century. Revision of Language—Component 2 Section B	English Language Component 1 (1 hour 45 min) – hall mock exam

Spring	Language – Component 1 Section B Prose writing: recap how to describe and narrate when telling a story, while using language imaginatively and creatively	45 minutes – hall exam	Revision By this point in the GCSE course, students should have completed the curriculum. Class and home study time will be spent recapping knowledge of texts and approaches to examinations.	English Literature Component 1 (2 hours) – hall mock exam
	Literature – Component 1 Section B Study four poems from the anthology	N/A		English Language Component 1 (1 hour 45 minutes) – hall mock exam
Summer	Language – Component 2 Section B Non-Fiction writing: recap how to write transactional, persuasive and discursive writing (from end of Y9).	30 minutes – class exam	Revision By this point in the GCSE course, students should have completed the curriculum. Class and home study time will be spent recapping knowledge of texts and approaches to examinations.	English Literature Component 2 (2 hours 30 minutes) – hall mock exam
	Literature – Component 1 Section A Study 'Macbeth' in its entirety. Learn how to closely analyse the play's language, form and structure	1 hour – hall exam		External examinations (these will start in May)
	Language – Component 3 Write and perform a formal speech in front of an audience. Respond to questions.	Assessed using pass/merit/distinction criteria. Marks submitted to exam board and recorded on GCSE certificates.		