Dear Parents/carers

Form the Future's is running a FREE webinar on Tuesday 13th January at 5.30-6.30pm, aimed at Parents and Carers and their young people. This session investigates 'Insights into the Workplace' and is a brilliant opportunity to discover how to support young people to explore their next steps in education and the world of work.

In this webinar, experienced careers professionals will share practical strategies to help your child identify the skills they've already gained and how to talk about them with confidence. Whether they're applying for a part-time job, apprenticeship, or university course, being able to articulate their strengths is a vital step.

We will outline and discuss the following:

- ◇ The most common skills & abilities that employers look for
- ◇ How young people can develop and demonstrate these skills
- ◇ How you can help and support you child/ren to develop these skills to prepare them to write successful job applications
