Parents/Carers of
Soham Village College

Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing to let you know that Jon Hampson, Headteacher of Soham Village College, has informed us of his intention to retire at the end of this academic year. Mr Hampson has been a leader at the school for a number of years, most recently as Headteacher, and throughout this time he has shown a strong and sustained dedication to providing a high standard of education and opportunities for students at the school. His leadership has led the school through an 'Outstanding' Ofsted inspection and has contributed to developing a school that is valued by staff, students and families, as well as being held in high regard within the local community.

We will now begin the process of appointing a new headteacher. This will be led by Duncan Cooper, Director of Secondary Education, in partnership with the Local Governing Body. This process will ensure that we appoint a leader with the expertise and experience required to guide the school confidently into its next phase. We will keep you updated on this progress.

Yours sincerely
