Dear Parents and Carers,

Young Musician of the Year Final on Monday 6 July at 7.00pm

I am pleased to invite you to Soham Village College's annual Young Musician of the Year Final, which takes place on Monday 6 July at 7.00pm in our Performing Arts Centre.

The evening will include a range of instruments, styles and genres of music, played by students of all ages, including local primary school children from the surrounding areas. We will be welcoming a professional musician as guest adjudicator on the night, bringing with them a wealth of experience and expertise.

Should you wish to attend, tickets for the event are priced £5.00 each and are available from www.ticketsource.co.uk/Sohamvc. We do hope that you will be able to join us and support our many talented musicians.

Yours sincerely,

Jon Hampson
Headteacher
