BOOK OF THE WEEK

TO ALL THE BOYS I'VE LOVED BEFORE GRAPHIC NOVEL

What if all the crushes you ever had found out how you felt about them...all at once?

Sixteen-year-old Lara Jean Song keeps her love letters in a hatbox her mother gave her. They aren't love letters that anyone else wrote for her; these are ones she's written. One for every boy she's ever loved - five in all. When she writes, she pours out her heart and soul and says all the things she would never say in real life, because her letters are for her eyes only. Until the day her secret letters are mailed and, suddenly, Lara Jean's love life goes from imaginary to out of control.

AVAILABLE TO BORROW FROM THE SVC LIBRARY!

SORA OF THE WEEK

CLEM FATALE HAS BEEN BETRAYED BY EVE WERSOCKI-MORRIS

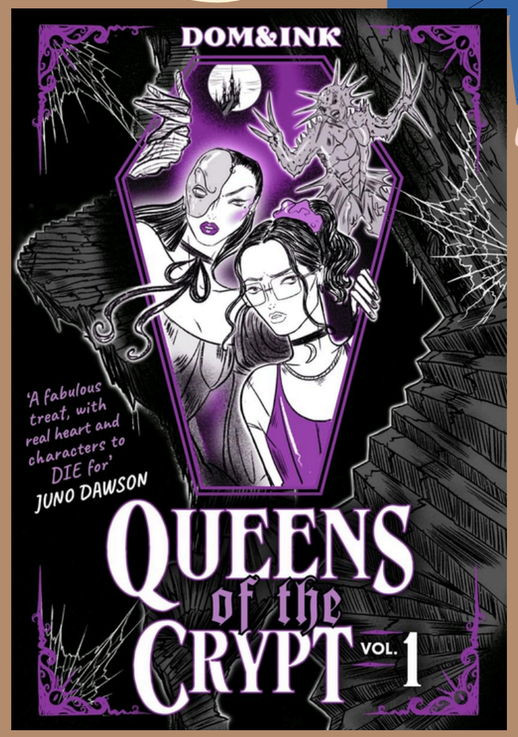

London, 1951: Clem Fatale, the youngest crook in the city, is on a mission to find her dad. Jimmy Fatale, notorious jewel thief andleader of the Spider Gang, has gone missing and with him the greatestprize in London: the Fool's Canary. Nothing, and nobody, will stop Clem from finding them...

MRS WEBB HAS BEEN READING.....

Spotted this one when browsing my local library catalogue. I loved the vampy cover and my favourite colour is purple so I thought I had to try it!

It follows Barnaby, who having just come out to their parents (who are not the most supportive) then has to deal with their best friend Fi being kidnapped by a demon!

Barnaby befriends the 'Queens of the Crypt' and together they do battle to free Fi and hopefully help them understand themselves a little better.

★★★★

Perfect for fans of Homebody or Heartstopper

Let me know if you think I should get it for the SVC Library

CALLING ARTISTS & CRAFTERS!

We are looking for stall holders for the Soham Literary & Arts Festival next summer, and thought what better place to look than our own talented students!

So if you are a whizz with a crochet hook, or have a talent for painting and would like the opportunity to sell some of your creations, please speak to Mrs Webb in the library for more details!

ONE PEICE TRADING CARD CLUB

Tuesday Lunchtime in the Library
(Years 7&8)

WEEKLY RIDDLE

When was the latest year that is the same upside down?

WEEKLY RIDDLE

LAST WEEK'S ANSWER

Some will use me, while others will not, some have remembered, while others have forgot.

For profit or gain, I'm used expertly, I can't be picked off the ground or tossed into the sea.

Only gained from patience and time, can you unravel my rhyme. What am I?

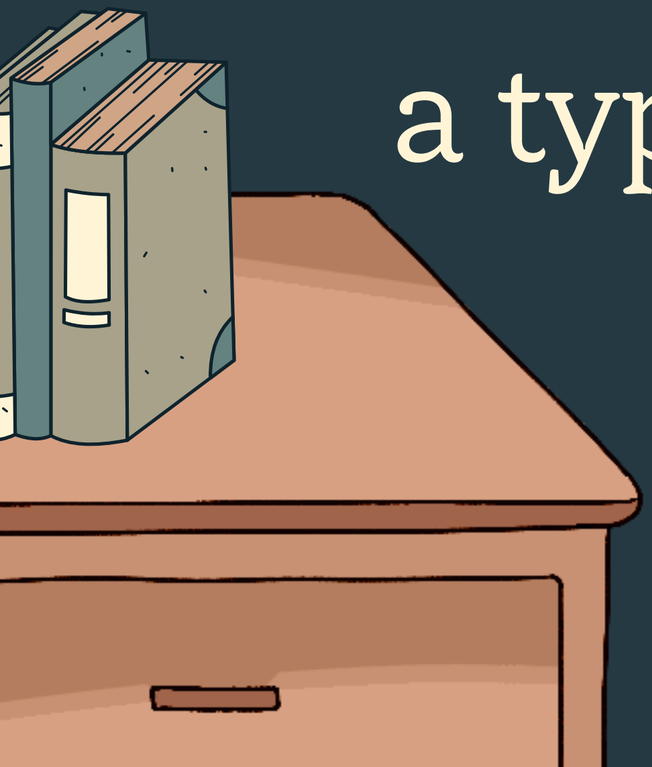

EXPERIENCE

DID YOU KNOW?

You could draw a line 56km long with a typical pencil.

All the facts this term are being taken from ‘Usborne General Knowledge’– this is available to borrow from the library and this fact is on Page 1
